Dedication

We, the annual staff, dedicate this annual to the sons, fathers, and loved ones who gave so unselfishly to the cause of peace in Korea.

May their courage be inspiration to all—that we might live in a free world.

President's Message

I am happy to have the privilege of expressing my appreciation and gratification to the high school students for the splendid projects they have put over from year to year. One of the best projects is that of the high school annual. It involves a great deal of work, but I am sure that those who put their time on this annual are repaid in many ways. There is the satisfaction of the college and high school faculty. Even better are the words of praise given by your fellow students.

While appreciation and praise are very fine, personally, I believe that even greater benefit is that of the personal growth embodied in turning out a fine piece of work.

I wish to congratulate the staff for their efforts and we know that the annual will be a source of happiness in bringing back memories of all high school students to those who are fortunate in securing an annual. I wish to express my appreciation for the fine accomplishment and endeavor on your part.

Cordially yours,

H. W. James, President

Kenneth E. Kostenbader

Principal's Message

Recently I saw a picture of a man and two teen-age girls, one on each side of him, on the cover of a current magazine. The caption for the picture said, "They are as proud of him as he is of them." The man in the picture was Eddie Sawyer, manager of the National League Champion Phillies; the girls were his young daughters.

I would like to word paint another picture for you with Western High School in the background and all of the students in the foreground. The caption could again read, "We are as proud of you as you are of us."

It is the obligation of each student to so conduct himself or herself at all times that Western High will be proud of each and every student. It is the duty of Western High to be such a good school that each student will be proud of it.

May both fulfill its obligations and duties.

Western High School Goes to Washington

Jerold, with Jon Aderhold of Las Cruces, New Mexico's other delegate and 93 other boys representing every state in the country spent one week in Washington at Boys Nation during July, 1950.

While in Washington the boys were received by the President of the United States and many other government officials. Boys Nation is sponsored by the American Legion and is part of the Legion's citizenship training program for American youth.
